Join us for the 2018 Applied Learning Expo at the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

The Applied Learning Expo (formerly Internship Expo) is great opportunity to meet and connect with our new student cohort, share information about internship and other project opportunities at your organization, and gain valuable visibility on HGSE’s campus. Last year, over 480 students and 70 employers participated. We anticipate a lot of interest again this year in this space-limited event, so please confirm your interest soon!

*Expo registrants must post at least 1 applied learning opportunity (internship or project) on Hub to be eligible to participate in the event.

3. REVIEW STUDENT RESUMES
Review student resumes on Hub (log into Hub, click on Discover and then Members) and use the resource to:
   • Identify and contact potential candidates for your internship and project position(s)
   • Encourage them to visit you at the Expo
   • Set up interviews for the week before, of, or after the Expo

According to our surveys:
   • Students cite internships and applied learning projects as one of the top resources they’ve used to find jobs.
   • Employers that connect with students in multiple ways tend to hire more students than employers who only participate in one recruiting activity. To participate in our Career Fairs throughout the year, please contact Rachael McDermott, rachael_mcdermott@gse.harvard.edu.

At any time, please feel free to contact Rachel Gakenheimer, Manager of Applied Learning, with any questions at 617.495.3427 or at rachel_gakenheimer@gse.harvard.edu.
